RED SENIOR PUCKSTERS GAIN SEASON OPENER 6-3

Stage Third Canto Rally To Trip Caniron Sextet As S-H-H Trio Sparkles

O'Connor and Tommy Hale Score Twice to Pace Team

Putting on an impressive display of speed, power and fight, McGill's Senior Hockey squad turned a two goal deficit into a 6-3 victory over the fast Caniron team at Three Rivers on Friday night in their season opener.

The game got off to a quick start from the face-off. Throughout most of the first period the Red team's passing didn't click smoothly on the short rink but strong defensive work and some fine saves by Gelineau kept the Three Rivers team to one goal, which was scored by Landry half way through the period. George Hale evened the score on a pass from brother Tommy just before the period ended.

CANIRON LEAD

Three Rivers scored their second goal at the midway mark of the middle canto. From then on the game became very rough. Parks followed Tommy Hale to the penalty box for hooking and almost immediately Broderick tangled with Landry. All four were banished for two minutes.

Landry was hardly back on the ice when he was again sent to the cooler for slashing Porteous. The Redmen applied the pressure but Henley turned back shots by Piereson, O'Connor and Porteous before Cossette and Laroche broke away to make the score 3-1 for Caniron. However O'Connor came back on a solo effort 30 seconds later to notch McGill's second counter.

UNLEASHED POWER

In the last stanza, play continued to be rough and fast. The Redmen fought all the way and steadily wore their opponents down. The power put on resulted in a four goal spurge, Tommy Hale cashing in on two and Spiller and O'Connor netting one apiece.

Tommy Hale's second goal was the picture play of the night. Taking a pass from Sinclair, he fought his way across the goal mouth, through two defencemen and slipped the puck behind Henley for the last tally of the game.

Ping-pong Tourney In Quarter Finals

Ralph and Sonny Lee Raider and Champagne Lead in Competition

With the exception of four matches, the ping-pong tourney has reached the quarter-final stages. Among the holdovers from last year's tournament, those still going strong are the two Lees, Ralph and Sonny. Sunny, who won the title last year, has trounced all his opponents thus far without the loss of a single game, and is still the man to beat.

Alec Raider and Eddie Champagne, newcomers to the University, have displayed the best form among the "unknowns" to date. Although little had been known about these boys around these parts both are seasoned players with probably more competitive experience behind them than any other entrants in the tourney.

The four games that have yet to be played MUST be completed by tomorrow. The first named players in the following list are responsible for contacting their opponents.

- Wight vs. Crystal, Cr. 8618.
- McDonald vs. Shriar, Ca. 9435.
- Ramkin vs. Gore, Fl. 2895.
- Annon vs. Duclos, De. 9603.

IN OUR OPINION

The most striking news to come out of college circles in the past few weeks has been the banding of eight American universities—Brown, Columbia, Cornell, Dartmouth, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Princeton and Yale—into the Ivy League. These colleges have agreed to abolish athletic scholarships and to prevent professional athletes from participating in College sports. Moreover, they have decided to stop scheduling games with universities which continue the practice.

Overtures have been made to Army and Navy, long known for their de-emphasis on athletic scholarships yet still the two most powerful teams in the U.S.A., to join the Union. It is felt that these ten schools of 'higher learning' could and would, if they played them, defeat teams in the midwestern 'Big Ten', where athletic commercialism is still rampant.

This new system will in the long run be of great importance to Canadian athletics. In football some of the best local talent including D'Arcy Quinn, Buck McLeod and Tommy Manastersky have been or will be sent to North Carolina U. through the work of some of the local sporting (?) agents (D. Holy Cross and Minnesota are other talent seekers par excellence).

In hockey this year Minnesota lured the nucleus of the Manitoba University hockey team away, while McGill has lost the Macken brothers, star tennis players, to William and Mary, via the athletic scholarship route. All in all Canada is becoming a fertile ground for sporting talent, as was evidenced by the baseball scouts hereabouts during the summer, but our best players are being taken away and Americanized.

Our hearty congratulations are therefore extended to these American Colleges, who realize that sports are not THE ONLY THING at college and now perhaps others will be shamed into following. Maybe too these students, who believe foreign fields are greener, will find all the athletic facilities required right here at home. Canadians may be proud in that her universities, observing CIAU rules, have NEVER offered athletic scholarships. The United States or at least the universities that specialize in education have learned their lesson.

BOUQUET OF THE WEEK

Our orchid this week is tossed (oops, don't drop it!) to Pete Finlay, stellar guard on the McGill cage squad. Off his showing in the first game this year, five would have got you ten that Pete would not last long with the Senior Hoopsters. However, Finlay, playing his first year out of high school ranks, has improved immensely and in last Wednesday's game against Shipmates was the vital cog in the victory march of the Red Machine. He didn't score but his clean, defensive play showed up many of the old-timers.

Doc Sabbath Garners Wrestling Crown for McGill in CPR Meet

The McGill Wrestling Team under their able coach, Frank Saxon, put on an excellent display at the C.P.R. Provincial Novice Wrestling Competitions held last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Starring for the team was Joe (Doc) Sabbath who garnered McGill's second championship in the last two years. Joe left no doubt in the minds of the judges and spectators as to his superiority in his division by defeating three opponents in decisive fashion.

The new amateur rules were in use and made it much more difficult for a competitor to win his match on falls as a three-second time limit was used instead of the customary one-second or rolling falls.

The Red Squad placed high in the meet, but due to their limited number of entries were unable to cop the team laurels.

Both Sherry Raymond and Carlos Calderon, the other two McGill matmen entered in the meet, reached the semi-finals with little effort, but there they both were defeated. Raymond's loss was a heart-breaker as he was edged out by a tenth of a point in a well-fought tussle.

Coach Frank Saxon, former Olympic and British Games star, was well pleased with the results and forecast a McGill victory in the forthcoming Inter-Collegiate Wrestling Competition to be held at Queen's in the coming new year. The addition of Ronnie Garside, last year's lightweight wrestling champ, and a few more very promising new grapplers are the reasons for the coach's optimism.

Interclass Basketball Ends Schedule Tues.

On the strength of their first round play Med. Ila and Med. IIB, led by Pat Sharkey and George Athans respectively are co-favorites to cop the second round. However stiff opposition is expected from the strong Com. Ia and Arts and Science III & IV teams.

Redmen Trim Aggies 35-24; Coeds in Successful Debut

Show Fast Pace; Davine and Cole In Brilliant Play

By GERALD FINKELSTEIN

In a rough, action-packed thriller the Red and White Intermediate Quintet decisively defeated the Green and Gold of Macdonald by the score of 35-24. The victory at St. Annes on Saturday afternoon, leaves the Redmen in third place, in the Intermediate college loop.

Paced by the dazzling performances of Davine, who potted 11 points on the offense, and Cole's six points, in a rushing-defense role, the McGill cagers had little trouble in overpowering the Aggies. For the losers, both McLean and Parmelee were sensational with 8 and 7 points respectively.

MAINTAIN FAST CLIP

The game opened at a fast clip and remained that way throughout, mainly because of the smallness of the gym. After about two minutes of play the first basket was scored by McLean on a beautiful corner shot. The Redmen retaliated almost immediately on a long shot by Davine, which cut the cordage in a clean swish. A spectacular pivot by Cole was followed by see-saw play featuring Parmelee for the Aggies and MacTavish, with quick successive baskets, for the McGill team. With but half a minute of play remaining in the first half, however, MacTavish sprained his ankle, and had to be carried from the floor. The score at half time, after Beaupre whopped the ball from the ozone and through the cordage twice in a row, was 21-13 in favor of the visitors.

The play in the second half, though for the most part un spectacular, was rough and fast, and featured the constant interception of McGill passes by the home team.

Volleyball Games Continues Today

Eng. 3 Beats Arts 3 In Sole Friday Tilt; All Others Default

Lack of spirit was evident from the showing in the volleyball tourney games scheduled for last Friday afternoon as most of the players on the teams were conspicuous by their absence.

Teams representing Arts II, Eng. IV and Grads defaulted while the tilt between Eng. II and Com. I found neither squad at anywhere near full strength. In the only contested game, Eng. III defeated Arts III and IV.

Hope is expressed that at future games more interest and competition be shown. Today at 5:15 Arts I plays Arch., at 5:30 Se. II meets Com. I, and at 5:45 Med. I plays Com. III and IV.

The make-up for the Volleyball Tournament are as follows:
Section 1: Arts I, Science II, Arch., Commerce I.
Section 2: Arts II, Science III and IV, Eng. II, Commerce II.
Section 3: Arts III and IV, Eng. III, Med. I, Commerce III and IV.
Section 4: Eng. IV, Grads, Dentistry, Phys. Ed.

Montreal U. Wins, 9-4, Over Yale Puck Team

New Haven, Conn., December 16.—A fast skating University of Montreal hockey team defeated Yale, 9-4, in the arena here Saturday night, coming from behind after Yale had taken a 2-0 lead in the first six minutes of play.

Montreal's forwards were far too fast for Yale's defence and only the fine goal tending of Van Ingen, credited with 34 saves, held the score to nine tallies.

Tony Champagne, former Canadian Army Lieutenant, and Paul Gignac starred for the visitors.

Second-half Rally Wins for Seniors; Juniors Powerful

The McGill Coed basketball teams got off to a flying start in their debut against the Macdonald quintets at the Gym Saturday when the Seniors came from behind to take a 23-20 decision while the Juniors swamped their college rivals 31-17.

Both College aggregates are entered in an unofficial league which includes teams from the Central YWCA and a junior girls squad from the East-End Boys' Club. These games are serving as tune-ups for future intercollegiate games which will be held concurrently with the men's schedule, McGill serving as hostesses for all contests.

Showing much cohesion after a slow start the Senior Coed cage team had to rally to nip the Aggies in a hard fought battle. The fact Mac quintet rolled to a substantial lead in the first quarter with a smart brand of play. However the Red and White women, led by versatile Bobby Fenton and Elaine Fildes, found their bearings in the second canto to pull the victory out of the bag.

JUNIORS STRONG

The Juniors, on the other hand, proved that their powerhouse tactics will take a lot of beating from other clubs as they coasted to an easy win over their sister college. Showing a swift passing attack coupled with an uncanny ability to sink baskets when they count most, the Juniors quintet were

MOC Notice

"There are still a few accommodations left at both the Shawbridge boys' and girls' MOC houses," stated the house committee last night, "and those members intending to be up north during the Christmas holidays are advised to sign up before Thursday in order to minimize crowding."

Those girls, who have already done so, are asked by the committee to contact Angela Casson or Trudie MacIntosh this week. The male students, who have handed their names in at the Athletics office for the boys' house, are urged by MOCers to go up to Mrs. Hendrie's office at the Currie Gym and pay for their respective stays at the Shawbridge resort.

SQUASH BALLS AVAILABLE

Squash balls have now arrived and are available at the wicket in the Gym. All those who have not as yet turned out are invited by the manager to show their wares, as an increase in competitive play is assured.

Dawson Science Nines In Softball Semi-finals

Rallying to gather nine points in the second inning to put their game on ice, Science 2 defeated Science 1 by a score of 17-2 in the Dawson Intramural Softball Semi-finals. They face Engineering A in the forthcoming finals.

Righthander Paul Lapointe pitched and batted his team to victory, while "Lefty" Davis toiled in vain for the losers. Lapointe only allowed four hits, while he himself connected for three safe bingles. After tallying their lone markers in the opening inning, the Science 1 team were completely subdued the remainder of the way.

League secretary Doug Hogg announced last evening that league plans to match its championship squad against the McGill champions, for the university softball diadem. In the game scheduled for next Tuesday, the captains of Science 1 and Engineering A have announced that they plan to use Paul Lapointe and "Hooks" Sato respectively as their opening pitchers.

FLOOR—p. 3

Thursday night the B.H. Boys beat the Bushers 5-2 as the Lee brothers, Doug and Herb, scored twice each along with a tally by "Sweetstick" Honeyman. In the second tilt the Zombies spoiled the Speedballs playoff chances by edging them out 4-3. Rocket Chouinard scored twice for the winners and Wally Clark and "Hippity" Hender once each. Led by "Flying Fritz" Fraser's three goals the Female Flashes outscored the pinups 5-2 to remain in the playoff running. In the final tilt "Driller" Drummond came through with three tallies to lead the Tengineers to 6-2 triumph over the Aces.

SHOW FAST—p. 3

Scoring was opened by Davine, after one minute of play, and the Redmen never relinquished their lead from this point on, showing enough polish to outwit the Aggies time and again. Final score in the contest was 35-24.

SPORTS RAMBLINGS—p. 3

His passing was perfect and Davies can be proud of the job he has done with Finlay. Pete, ol' man, welcome to the big time!

HITHER AND YAWN

We see where the Western Mustangs have scheduled a 25 game schedule including tilts with the University of Kentucky and Wayne College. Away from home at that. Hubba, hubba, hubba. . . . Western also has eight men from the football squad on their basketball team. Krol, Allen, Farley et al. we'll be seeing you. . . . From Queen's word has it that co-eds take their hoop game very seriously. In recent contests members of the "weaker sex" sported among other injuries a broken nose and a broken leg. Naughty, naughty. . . . Varsity's hoop team got off to a good start this year. They eked out a 91-11 victory over the University of Buffalo. Yes 91-11.

AFTERTHOUGHTS

In pouring over the college newspapers of Canadian Universities, we noted discontent. Due to lack of Canadian competition the Universities of Manitoba and British Columbia have joined American Conferences in football. McMaster has applied for Senior recognition and the University of Ottawa, deemed not strong enough for senior play, complains over the lack of competition in intermediate circles. If the future of Canadian Intercollegiate sports is to be a rosy one, attempts must be made to enlarge leagues and expand schedules. If Southern Cal. can play Army in the United States there is no reason why McGill can't oppose UBC. After all, though we do advocate the de-emphasis of sports, we don't believe in stifling them.

FEE CUTS—p. 1

University for board and residence in the case of single men will be reduced, on January 1, 1946, to the following figures:

One, two or three men to a room, $45 per month.

More than three men to a room, $39 per month.

These rates include all meals throughout the week, as well as residence accommodation. In the case of married students, the rates will remain at the figures already in effect, viz., $70 a month for a husband and wife, or $80 for husband, wife and one child in a two room suite, with all meals included.

It was pointed out by Dr. F. Cyril James, the Principal and Vice-Chancellor, that these new rates do not fully cover the estimated cost of operating the residential section of Dawson College but the reduction has been made in the expectation that, after allowance is made for a further influx of students, in June, the income for the whole year should approximate the aggregate expenditures that are envisaged.

He also took occasion to contradict emphatically the rumour which has gained credence in some circles that the University expects to fail a large proportion of the First Year students in order that the Upper Classes on the McGill College Campus may not be overcrowded.

"It should be clearly understood," said Dr. James, "that the examination standards will be the same this year as they have been in the past. Every student who meets the traditional standard will find a place waiting for him in the Upper Year classes of his chosen course, and from the splendid academic records of the ex-service students who came to McGill a year ago, it is apparent that all our classes will be much larger than they have ever been."

"Some congestion is inevitable during the years that lie ahead, but steps have already been taken to minimize that congestion by enlarging some of the University buildings and rearranging the timetable in a manner that provides for the optimum use of all of our facilities."

"No student will be prevented from winning his degree by lack of space or scientific facilities. I know that all students will accept without complaint the minor inconveniences resulting from the inescapable congestion and arrangement of classes, and I look forward to future Convocations in which the roster of graduates will be as large as the present First Year classes."

Gill University took the unprecedented step of establishing special courses for ex-service students who wished to study for degree, it was the first University in Canada to do so.

Long before that date, plans had been carefully developed by the Post-War Problems Committee of the University Senate, and the experience of the past twelve months has demonstrated the practicability of the scheme from the viewpoint of the student. The arrangements for the new courses that are about to begin will, therefore, follow the lines that were laid down twelve months ago, and it is confidently expected that the incoming students from the armed services will equal, or surpass, the splendid academic records of their predecessors.

rent, fuel, groceries and other household necessities.

Part time work does not help the situation greatly, as to earn the $75 monthly allowed by the Committee on Veterans Affairs, a student would have to work an average of six hours, taking into account the average 50c an hour wage rate for students in Montreal at the present time. An Engineering student is in classes for 31 hours a week, so this is not feasible, even if it did not affect studies.

minute stretch in the second half and played well, outscoring the Green and Gold quintet with a hard driving style of play. Missing from the McGill lineup was Ronnie Bower, who was unable to play owing to illness.

PAZUR PACES MAC

For the Mac Crew, Pazur proved to be the main offensive threat, swishing the cordage for twelve points, while Brick Privett garnered half a dozen markers for the Ste. Annes team. Ross Chapman and Wad Drapala also turned in steady games, but the Aggies were outclassed by their opponents, and never had an opportunity to really get going.

Scoring started out fairly quickly, and the Redmen ran up a 16-6 lead in the first ten minutes. This early drive was initiated by Pete Finlay with two quick baskets, while some accurate foul shooting by Davidson and Hoyle plus a pair of field goals by Roth helped build up the lead. The remainder of the half saw the Aggies defense stiffen, and the teams seceded back and forth on even terms. At half time the score stood at 27-16 for McGill.

TEAMS EVEN

The beginning of the second stanza was an exact replica of the end of the first. The scoring was fast and furious, with neither team holding an edge. At around the six minute mark the Redmen began to pull away again, and a flock of baskets by Roth together with a trio of points by Davidson moved Davies' minions into a 38-22 lead. At this point the second team came on the floor, and they ran the score up to 44-22 on a pair of baskets by Goodwin, and one by Millar. After that the Green and Gold hoopers started a drive of their own, and notched four baskets before the end of the match, but it proved to be too late.
